

Open Water Class with Deep Blue Scuba

General Timetable for class

1st Saturday

- Meet in the shop (5001 Central Ave, west of the Rio Grande, near Coors – NOT in the Nob Hill area) on the first Saturday of the class:
 - Arrive by 10am.
 - We will get you fitted for wet suit and your buoyancy compensator (BCD). Make sure you bring/wear a bathing suit for the best fit.
 - We will get you equipped with all additional items.
 - If you have Mask, Fins or Snorkels, bring them otherwise we will discuss purchase options.
 - We will cover equipment setup in the shop and address any questions you may have.
 - Depending on number of students and other factors, expect to be done between 1p~3pm (have brunch before meeting us?)
- Meet at the pool (West Mesa Aquatic Center: 6705 Fortuna Rd NW, Albuquerque, NM 87121) at 5pm unless told otherwise. We will usually be there a few minutes early if you want to hang out.
 - It is REQUIRED that you complete all online (eLearning) portions of the theoretical portion prior to the pool session. If you have not received an eLearning code, please call the shop sufficiently advance (it will take several hours to complete).
 - If you have medical concerns that you feel were not adequately addressed on your medical release form, please let us know (specific allergies, etc.), this is for your benefit.

- We will practice diving skills which will take approximately 3h. Bring anything you would bring to a pool or beach (dry clothes, swim-suits, towel, food/snacks/etc.). Expect to be done no earlier than 8:30pm.
- You will be tired & hungry after the pool session...

1st Sunday

- Meet us at the shop by 3pm.
 - We will cover some additional topics in class and will address any questions you may have from the Saturday class.
- Meet us at the pool for 5pm.
 - We will continue the confined water skills.
 - Bring a swim suit. You will be expected to demonstrate very basic swim skills without a wet suit.
